

Data Protection

I take the protection of your personal data very seriously. Therefore I make sure that all current provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act are strictly adhered to.

It is generally possible to visit the site without supplying any personal data. If personal data are collected, this only occurs – to the extent possible – with the prior consent of the user of the website. No data will be passed on to third parties without the express consent of the user.

You can request information on any data stored and rescind your agreement to provide personal data at any time.

We would like to expressly point out that the transmission of data via the Internet (e.g., by e-mail) can result in security vulnerabilities. It is therefore impossible to safeguard the data completely against access by third parties. We cannot assume any liability for damages arising as a result of such security vulnerabilities.

The use by third parties of all published contact details for the purpose of advertising is expressly excluded. We reserve the right to take legal steps in the case of the unsolicited sending of advertising information; e.g., by means of spam mail.
